

I grew up on Merritt Island, Florida in the fifty's. I graduated University of Central Florida earning a BSBA in April, 1977 when the university was called Florida Technological University. I was a flight attendance and worked on the cruise lines (Terminal Manger) for over 21 years. I moved to Jacksonville, Florida. I have been working at University of North Florida since 2002. I was a Compliance Coordinator of Financial Aid. In 2006, I transferred to Coordinator of Accounting and Collections. I am marry, have 3 children and 2 grandchildren.