

Amy Iverson is currently the Director of Student Accounts at Daytona State College and has been with the College for the past 9 years. Prior to that, Amy was the Bursar at Seminole Community College for 7 years. Amy has served on the Executive Board for FABSAA in 3 previous years.

Amy's responsibilities in her current position include cashiering; student scholarships, grants and waivers; institutional loans and collections; third party billings; financial aid disbursements and reconciliations; and student refunds. Amy graduated from Florida Southern College with a Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting and has been happily married for 20 years.